

The SANGUINIST

A RELIGIOUS WEEKLY

Glory be to Jesus,
Who in bitter pains
Poured for me the life blood
From His sacred veins.

Published by the
Sanguinist Club for Catholic Action

St. Joseph's College

Collegeville, Indiana

October 13, 1940

Volume IV, No.4

INITIATION OF A DIFFERENT COLOR:

At the beginning of each school year, the freshman class is submitted to a prolonged trial by upper classmen. We are making no comments on the wisdom or policy of typical initiations. But there is another kind of initiation, the introduction into that thrilling spiritual adventure which seeks its quest in God. It is the romance of the human soul that leads to God. In this respect, many of you are still "Freshies". If you do not believe so, then ask yourselves these questions: Do the great eternal truths: death, judgement, heaven, and hell, have any influence on my life? Does my attitude toward the Mass, Communion, and the sacraments, translate itself into real action? Do my actions and conduct run counter to the Faith I proclaim? Am I being square with God?

Knute Rockne, Youths' Ideal

Hollywood's latest hit, Knute Rockne, The All American Coach, brings back memories. Three summers ago, your editor knelt in prayer in the chapel of Dillon Hall, Notre Dame. His thoughts naturally turned to Rock, for in Dillon Hall Chapel stands the artistically executed shrine-altar of St. Olaf of Norway, dedicated to the memory of the All American Coach. Rock was a successful coach because he saw in athletics the magic key that would unlock the treasures latent in the hearts of American Youth. Athletics, to him, was a training school that developed not only the body, but the mind and soul as well. His own example convinced the boys that clean thinking and clean living were necessary postulates for a successful career. Following his conversion to the Faith, Rock's genuine Catholic life proved to the men of Notre Dame and to all youth that solid Christian piety walks arm and arm with true manliness.

Calling Annapolis, Midshipman, Bill Daly

If you do not know, let us inform you that Bill Daly, Midshipman at the U.S. Naval Academy, is carrying on a work of real Catholic Action. Bill is the editor of a religious weekly, The Catholic Midshipmens' Bulletin. We wish Bill every success in his work. One of the best ways our Catholic young men can uphold the finest traditions of the Navy is being loyal and active Catholics.

"God Bless America" -- But:

Kate Smith, the beloved American singer, has made a notable contribution to our age. In popularizing "God Bless America" she has brought many Americans out of their materialistic stupor, and has made them God-conscious. But if we want God to bless America, we must do something to merit that blessing. You can be a real patriot by so living that your own actions will play no small part in calling down that blessing which alone can preserve and guarantee the liberty of a free and independant nation.

October 13, Holy Name Sunday

Holding fast to our traditions, we again call your attention to the fact that the second Sunday of every month is dedicated to the Holy Name. All students are urged to receive Holy Communion. Immediately after the sermon, all students recite the Holy Name Pledge -- this Sunday.

LITURGICAL CALENDAR

SUN.13. Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost. Today is Holy Name Sunday, general Communion day.

MON.14. St. Callistus, pope, martyr. He devoted his life to the defense of the Trinity against the heretics of his day. He was also known for his love and compassion for sinners.

TUES.15. St. Teresa, virgin. (1515-82) For her mystical writings, Teresa, the Carmelite nun, earned the title, Doctor of the Spiritual Life.

WED. 16. St. Hedwig, widow. (1174-1243) Queen of Poland, she gave up her throne for the simplicity of religious life. Pope Clement proposed her to the Poles as the celestial patron of their country.

THURS.17. St. Margaret Mary Aloccoque, virgin. She promoted the devotion of the Nine Fridays in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

FRI.18. St. Luke, evangelist. He is the author of the gospel that bears his name and the Acts of the Apostles. Imitate him in his love of the word of God.

SAT.19. St. Peter Alcantara, confessor. (1499-1562) After he entered the Franciscan Order at fifteen years of age, he lead a life of extraordinary prayer and virtue. Prayer is the password to Heaven